Three thousand inebriates have applied for admission into the New York State Inebriate Asylum. Among the number are thirty clergymen, in whom the spirit appears to be stronger than the flesh.

D. C. Donier, editor of the Pee Dee N. C.) Times, fell into an old well in the Court-house yard, on Thursday last, and escaped unburt. However the editor may have been injured, he could not but say after the accident, "It is well." Perhaps he was looking after truth, which, according to the old aphorism, is at the bottom of a well.

A terrible street fight occurred at Vincennes, Ind., one day last week, between the City Marshal, his two Deputies, and three Constables, in which pistols, Bowie-knives, clubs and brick-bats were freely used. None of the combatants were killed, though some of them were severely wounded.

Cuyahoga County Jail at Cleveland was discovered and frustrated on Tuesday. The plot was for one of the prisoners, of whom ninety were under confinement, to throw pepper into the allor's eyes as he entered the hall to lock up the prisoners for the night, get possession of his keys, and then rush out.

A Child-Wise Letter.

Lydia Maria Child, who received a diplomatic letter from Gov. Wise, which has caused much comment here and general approval, we believe, with most of her own sex, is resolved to have the last word and the longest talk. She replies characteristically in the Tribune, through a column and a half against "Slave Power," concluding as follows:

"The people of the North had a very strong "The people of the North had a very strong attachment to the Union; but, by your desperate measures, you have weakened it beyond all power of restoration. They are not your enemies, as you suppose, but they cannot consent to be your tools for any ignoble task you must not judge. sent to be your tools for any ignoble task you may choose to propose. You must not judge of us by the crawling sinuosities of an Everet; or by our magnificent hound, whom you trained to hunt your poor cripples, and then sent him sneaking in a corner to die—not with shame for the base purpose to which his strength had been applied, but with vexation because you withheld from him the promised bone. Not by such as these must you judge the free enlightened yeomanry of New England. A majority of them would rejoice to have the Slave States fulfill their off-repeated threat of withdrawal from the Union. It has have the Slave States fulfill their oft-repeated threat of withdrawal from the Union. It has ceased to be a bugbear, for we begin to despair of being able, by any other process, to give the world the example of a real republic. The moral sense of these States is outraged by being accomplices in sustaining an institution victous in all its aspects; and it is now generally understood that we purchase our disgrace at a great pecuniary expense. If you would only make the offer of a separation in serious earnest, you would hear the harty respose of millions. "Go, gentlemen, and Stand not upon the order of your going. But go at once."

Yours with all due respect,

L. MARIA CHILD."

THE PREMORITORY SYMPTOMS OF LUNACY IN THE PREMORITORY SYMPTOMS OF LUNACY IN GERRIT SMITH.—A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal says that, previous to being conveyed to Utica, "Mr. Smith had been quite sick for some tendays with 'brain fever,' and for most of this time quite delirious; but thinking he might soon recover, nothing was said about it out of the family, but getting no better, and perhaps weree, some of his most intimate friends were called in to see him. The great thome of conversation was Harper's great theme of conversation was Harper's Ferry and the transactions was Harper's Ferry and the transactions connected therewith. He recognized his friends, grasped them frantically by the hand, and told them they saw him for the last time; that he was a poor wretch, not fit to live; that he had not a friend on earth or in heaven; that the next night he should be in Baltimere and undergo the most excruciating torments that it was possible for human beings to inflict; that he had deeply wronged his neighbors in his ordinary dealings, &c.

Now all who know Mr. Smith intimately, know that in his ordinary transactions with his neighbors no man has been more honorable or more generous, and his uniform kindness to the poor in his vicinity is proverbial. Whether he had any more to do with the Harper's Ferry insurrection than with "wronging his neigh-bors," of course is not known, but one thing is certain, personally, no man in the country is more leved or respected.

The report that Mr. Smith has attempted violence to his persen, so far as I hear, is without foundation.

THE CATROLIC STATES OF EUROPE.-The Catholic States of Europe and their colonial dependencies are assessed to the amount of $2,722,163 toward the support of the Papal Government. This is an addition to taxes levied on imports, wines, lands, &c., within the Papal States. The income derived from these sources, native and foreign, in 1789, amounted to $5,843,073. The receipts in 1856 were $12,624,737, which did not quite equal the expenditures. The Pope receives about $600,000, out of which he has to provide for the entertainment of the Cardinals, the maintenance of the Swiss Guard, and pensions to persons employed in the churches, palaces, nuseums and other institutions. He take $4,000 for his personal expenses and sacerdotal vestments. The army costs about $2,000,000, and consists of about $15,000 men.

A SANGUINARY VILLAGE.-There are few villages in the country, if any, says the Louisville Courier, where as many deeds of blood have been perpetrated as at Bardstown, Ky.
Within a half scoreof years as many men have met a violent death. Among these we remember that Robert Logan Wickliffe shot Pat Grav. that James Pottinger was killed by Co-Gray; that James Pottinger was killed by Geo. Wilson; this was followed by a fight between The. Wilson and Lud. and Monroe Able, in which Wilson was killed. In less than a year Lud. Able was killed by John Wilson, a brother of the deceased. Wm. Hardin and John Robertson had a street fight, in which Hardin was mortally stabbed, and died in few days. And last, as we have recorded, John Talbott was slain by Thomas Hinds Slaughter, in his own house.

IMPORTANT WILL CASE DECIDED .- An important and singular will case has been before the Greene County (Ohio) Court of Common Pleas, for two weeks past. Richard Ran-dolph, a relative of the famons John Randolph, of Roanoke, died in Greene County last year. By his will be bequeathed all his property, valued at about $75,000, to his executor wm. Knott, to be applied to purchasing the free-dom of all the living slaves of the Randolph family, of Virginia. Victor Randolph, a brother of the deceased, living in Virginia, is trying to break the will on the ground of the alleged insanity of the deceased. The case was fully investigated, and the jury returned a verdict sustaining the will.

A CONNECTICUT MYSTERY .- The Bridgeport A CONNECTICUT MYSTERY.—The Bridgeport (Conn.) Farmer, without giving name or dates, tells a story of a beautiful lady of that city who was deceived into marrying a secundrel from another State and who separated from him and returned to Bridgeport, the fellow following her and annoying her in all sorts of ways. Last Saturday she visited a friend in a neighboring town and retired for the night. ways. Last Saturday she visited a friend in a neighboring town and retired for the night. The next morning she was not to be found, and it is supposed her husband got at her, drugged her and carried her off.

INDICTED FOR SECTION.—The Grand Jury of Norfolk, Va., have indicted S. Danenburg, who keeps a clothing and shoe store in Market Square, for seditious language circulated to incite insurrection. The counts in the in-dictment charge him with having used these words: "John Brown was a good man, and was fighting in a good cause, and did nothing but what any honest man would do." Danenburg left the city a few days ago, having an intimation that he had got himself into TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE LATE G. G. POIN-DEXTER.—The citizens of Nashville assembled on last Saturday for the purpose of paying a public tribute of respect to the memory of the late Geo. G. Poindexter, editor of the Union and American. Suitable resolutions were adopted, after which the meeting was addressed in a few touching and appropriate remarks by Hen. W. H. Humphreys, Judge of the Federal Court, by Hen. J. E. R. Ray, Secretary of State, and by N. Y. Cavitt, of Weakley County.

HEARTS .- We see it stated by some wiseacre, that the heart of a man weighs about nine ounces, that of a woman eight. As age increases, a man's heart grows heavier, and a woman's lighter, after thirty. Some girls lose heirs at sixteen.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN-LONGEVITY OF DISTINGUISHED WOMEN.—Mrs. Wilson, who died at Wilson's Mills, Maine, the other day, at the age of one hundred and four, less four at the age of one hundred and four, less four months, was born a subject of George II, and was nearly five years old when that monarch left his earthly crown for, let us hope, a heavenly one. She was almost a woman when Napoleon was born, was in her twenty-first year when Independence was declared, was verging on middle life when Washington became President, was nearly fifty-nine years when Jackson beat the British, andwas sixty-four when Maine became a State. Women seem to wear better than men. There was Terentia, Cicero's unruly spouse, who lived to one hundred and three; and Junia Tertia, the widow of Cassius, and sister of Brutus, who completed her century, surviving her husband some sixty-four years; and Lettice Knollys, Leicester's last wife, and mother of Elizabeth's Essex, who died at ninety-five; and lady Desmond, who got as far as one hundred and forty, and then was cut off by imprudently climbing a cherry tree, from which she got a fall, bringing on a fever, the only fruit of her exertions. Mrs. Hamilton, widow of Alexander Hamilton, lived for nearly a century. and Mrs. Morris, who, as Mary Phillipse, is said to have been Washington's first love; died at ninety-six.—Boston Traveller, Nov. 20.

THE LATE DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN GEORGIA. The fire at Atlants, Ga., Wednesday night, originated in a drug store near Shackelford's auction rooms, and burnt to the Fulton Bank. The Intelligencer newspaper office is in ruins, and two of the next blooks up Whitehall-street. The flames then spread from Markam street. The tiames then spread from Markam corner up Alabama-street to Dunn's grocery, and thence up Whitehall-street to Holbrook's hat store. The principal property destroyed was Miller & Co.'s printing office, Brown & Miller's music store, White & Co.'s dry goods store, Brown's clothing store, Wallace's hardware store, Lockhart's broker's office, Shackelware store, Lockmar's proker's once, Shackel-ford's auction rooms, Coleman's grocery, Jones's book store, Deehoug's Daguerreotype gallery, Frisbe's law office, Cutting's dry goods store, several confectioneries, tailor and barber shops. On Alabama-street two children were burnt to death, and another is missing. The mother of the children was awfully burnt, but still sur-vives. The loss is estimated at $300,000. The entire Coleman corner, down to Fulton Bank, is in ruins.

ROWDIES EMPLOYED AT ENGLISH ELECTIONS It appears, according to developments in re-gard to the recent Parliamentary election in England, that New York and Baltimore are not alone in the employment of "roughs" as a portion of the election machinery. It was testified to before a committee that the num-ber of "roughs" employed by the Conservatives during the Wakefield (England) election commenced with eighteen and ended with six hundred. The Liberals, it was stated, engaged more men—three to one. Each side set forth that they hired the men to protect their friends, but it is also stated that the house of every Conservative was marked with a cross, and of course, scenes of violence followed. In this borough a shoemaker and his son were offered $800 for their votes.

NEW ORANGE TRADE. - Since the discovery of gold in California, a large trade in oranges has sprung up between that country and the Society Islands. About five million oranges are annually experted, for which about $7.50 per thousand is paid, delivered on board ship. The fruit grows luxuriantly in every direction. The natives formerly made an intertion. tion. The natives formerly made an intoxicating liquor, called orange rum, from it. The orange season commences in February and ends in September, during which time the trees may be seen at once in the various stages of blossoming, green and half yellow, and ripe fruit.

SINGULAR OCULAR APPLICATION.—A young man named Alfred Walters, of Clearfield, has lately become the subject of a most singular and serious affliction, being a paralysis of the eyelids, which refuse to obey the muscles, whose office it is to raise the lids, and open the eyes; and the consequence is, he is unable to open the eyes except as he raises the lids with his hand. This remarkable afflic-tion of the organs of sight came as sudden as it was unexpected, and without apparent cause, and was first felt after indulging in a

A NEGRO-STEALER IN TENNESSEE .- Thomas Edwards, who said he was from Mobile, an agent of the underground railroad, last week abducted Mat, a slave of R. W. Southall, of Nashville. They were stopped at Meadon Tenn., and Edwards borrowed $65, telling the boy to follow him to Cairo, Ul., the first chance. This the negro tried to do, and was captured at Trenton, in that State. The sable individual had $500 and his "Mass' Felix's

A SINGULAR DEVICE .- While some excavations were being made in the western part of Petersburgh, Va., a day or two ago, a keg of powder was found at the bottom of an old lightning-rod. It was in a state of good preservation, though portions of it were caked and evidently useless. It had been placed there, no doubt, by some malicious fool who desired to blow up the building that stood there by lightning.

GOOD REASONS AGAINST DRUNKENNESS .man's pride, if he had no other metive, ought to keep him from getting drunk. The treat-ment which he is liable to receive while he is in this state ought to deter him from it. Every blockhead can laugh at him, every cowardly calf can abuse him, and every designing villain can impose upon and rob him.

LIBERALITY.-Jeremiah H. Brown, who had agreed to support fifty-two young men studying for the Baptist ministry in Howard College, Ala., at an annual cost of $13,000 in the aggregate, has recently endowed a theological chair in that College, by a contribution of $25,000, in addition to his former

AN "ABOLITIONIST" HUNG FIVE TIMES .-- A man from this city was suspected, in Pulaski County, Va., last week, of tampering with slaves, and was hung up five times by a rope attached to his neck. After the last sacen-sion, he was let loose, with the assurance that, if caught in Virginia again, he would have to stay up for a permanancy.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.-Edmund Ruffin, jr., of Prince George County, Va., on last Sunday night had his barn, with 2,000 bushels of wheat, stables, four mules and two horses, burnt up. It was no doubt the work of an incendiary. Mr. Ruffin loss about $10,000 or $12,000, on which there is no insurance.

A CUNNING COUNTERPRITER.—Daniel Rosen quet and his wife were arrested in New Orleans, last week, for dealing in counterfeit bank-notes, but before they could be secured she threw a large lot of it into the fire, and destroyed the evidence against them.

LOSS OF A BRIG AND SIX LIVES-A BOAR FULL OF PROPLE PICKED UP.—The British brig Lilly Dale, from Windsor, arrived in New York on Saturday morning. On the 15th instant she fell in with the boat of the brig Harvard, of Boston, containing six men belonging to that vessel, one of whom (the mate) was dead. They informed the Captain of the Lilly Dale that, on the night of the 13th inst., when off the South Shoals, the brig was hove down, when the mate and five men took to the boat, leaving the captain, (Anderson,) his wife and three men on the wreck, as it was impossible to take them off, and it was supposed that they must have perished that night. The mate, whose name was Conley, belonging to Eastport, died in the boat from exposure, and was buried by Captain Stephens, of the Lilly Pale, at noon of the 15th. At the time of the disaster there was a heavy gale from W. N. W., and finding the vessel would soon sink, as her cargo shifted, the mate and five men rushed for the boat, when a sea came aboard, carrying the boat with the above men overboard. They endeavored to regain the brig, in order to save the others, but found it

THE CONTINUED ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS. Vesuvius is still in a state of eruption, the lava having now reached a point three miles from the crater. The present mouth was opened eighteen months ago, by a violent earthquake, the cinders from which were carried as far as Constantinople—another proof of the great eastern current. The lave now issues from the base of the cone, passes down the valle, below Piano delle Ginestre, and falls into the great ravine known as the Sosse-Grande, 150 feet deep by 1,000 feet broad, which is new completely filled. Below this is cuts across the carriage-ro ad in three places, de-stroys about twenty ho uses and some olive stroys about twenty no uses and some onve groves and vineyards, and is now near t'ne Cemetery of Portice, vhose inhabitants are full of appre, bension. It is estimated that 28,000,000 cubic yards of lava have issued from 28,000,000 cubic yards of lava have issued from the crater during this eru; tion. The temporature of the lava is 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The guides have provided themselves with molds in which they cast imedallian heads of the King and Queen of Naples, Louis Napoleon, Queen Victoria, Victor Emmanuel, Czar Alexander, and even Mazinni, Murat, and Geribaldi.

SINGULAR CONDUCT OF A DEAF MUTE. - Recently a very distressing incident occurred in the family of Mr. Corbly Hill, who resides in the country, not far from Waynesburg, Penn. A daughter of his, after having finished her supper, went out of the room as usual, the family supposing that she had retired to bed. She had the misfortune to be a deaf mute, and was in delicate health. Discovering in a short time that she was not in bed, the family b time that she was not in bed, the family by came alarmed, and commenced search ag for her, which they continued to do constantly for three days, without eliciting any intelligence of her whatever, except the finding of a piece of skirt, which was recognized by the family as hers. On the fourth day large parties went out from town and searched the country, as they thought, thoroughly for miles around, and returned weary and sorrowful, with no news of the lost; but in the evening late she made her as pearance at Mr. Threekmerter's made her ay pearance at Mr. Throckmorton's, not over a quarter of a mile from her home. SMOP, ING REGULATIONS IN ENGLAND,-A book recen'sly published in London, entitled "Habits of Good Society," contains the following rules and suggestions in regard to smoking:

A host who asks you to smoke will generally offer you an old coat for the purpose. coat for the purpose. You must also, after smoking, rinse the routh well out, and, if possible, brush the ceeth. You should never smoke in another person's house without leave, and you should not ask leave to do so if there are ladies in the house. When you are going to smoke a cigar yourself, you should offer one at the same time to any body prese at, if not a clergyman or a very old man. You should always smoke a cigar given to you, whether good or bad, and never make any remarks as to the quality.

TERRIBLE WHISLWIND IN NOBTH CAROLINA-A CHILD CARRIED OFF A MILE.—Further particulars concerning the late whirlwind in Chowan and Perquiman Counties, N. C., assure us that it swept all over that section as a perfect besom of destruction. A poor widow, a Mrs. Ashley and child, had their house thrown about their ears as scraws in a hurricane She, herself, is so mangled that her life is de-spaired of. The child is expected to die also. People were roused from their slumbers in the darkness of the night to find their cottages torn into atoms as by a bomb of destruction and themselves glad to escape with maimed limbs, and stripped of every comfort of life.

A CHALLENGE ODDLY DISPOSED OFF .- War A CHALLENGE UDDLY DISPOSED OFF.—War-ring Russell, jailor for the city of Savannah, on Friday last, sent a challenge to fight a duel, to Judge John M. Millen, of the City Court. Judge Millen handed the challenge over to a city official, who promptly commu-nicated the fact to the Council. This body convened on Monday nicht and nicated the fact to the Council. This body convened on Monday night, and by unanimous vote dismissed Jailor Russel from office. Charles W. Stone has been appointed by the Mayor jailor pro tem. The challenge grew out of remarks made by Judge Millen in a speech at St. Andrew's Hall, during the recent canvass, which the former regarded as personally effoncive to himself. offensive to himself.

LOLA MONTEZ. — The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that Lola Montez is living very quietly up town, and doesn't have much to do with the world's people. Some of her old friends, the Bohemians, now and then drop in to have a little chat with her, and though she talks beautithe present feelings and way of life, she generally, by way of parenthesis, takes out her little tobacco pouch and makes a cigarette or two for self and friend, and then falls back upon old times with decided gusto and effect. But she doesn't tell anybody what she's going to do.

GEOGRAPHICAL KNOWLEDGE IN MAINE .- A law suit recently occurred in Bangor, Maine, in which it became necessary to give the exact lecality of Pennsylvania. One witness testified that it lay south of New York and north of Florids, and he was under the impression that it was an Atlantic State. Another witness testified that he had been to Philadelphia, says it is a commercial city, that there is a considerable amount of water there, and that the tide rises and falls; he also thought Philadelphia was in Pennsylvania.

PAINFUL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT. -On Saturday PAINFUL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last David Brown, Jackson County, Ala., was put off the eastward passenger train of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, near Scottabero', because he had no ticket, and would not pay the fare. On Sunday morning his mangled body was found on the track near Scottaboro', the up and down night trains having unconsciously run over him. He was drunk, and probably passed in to eternity without suspicion of danger.

H. H. LEAVITT.
For the last year I have been using the Alligator Cool Cooking Stove, manufactured by Messes, Adams & Peckover, which I consider a superior stove, and gives the utmost satisfaction. It is the only stove I have found that cooks perfectly with cool.

For some time past I have been using one of Meerts, Adams & Peckover's Alligator Coal Cooking Stoves, and can recommend them as being a superior stove, giving entire satisfaction in every respect.
